

1. Zippy

Zippy is an IoT-based fitness app that works on the concept of gamification. This app delivers an engaging and amusing experience to users when running on a treadmill. The application provides users with a realistic feel of participating in various marathon events where they can participate through their virtual avatars from different locations.

Features

- Solo or Multiplayer Game Mode
- Avatar Selection of One's Choice
- Real-time Collection of Running Speed and Duration
- Comprise the world's best marathon circuits
- Compatible with Android and iOS

2. Edutainment App

It is an educational application that serves students with a gamified experience of learning. It allows students to schedule their daily academic tasks and also allows them to participate in various classroom lectures through their virtual avatars. Using this app they can connect with their mentors to receive guidance and suggestions.

Features

- Compatible with Android and iOS
- Comprise engaging audio-video tutorials
- Supports multiple mediums of instructions
- Provide on-demand teaching materials
- Contain a ranking dashboard to motivate students

3. Seesaw

It is a social media application that is specifically devised for kids. Using this social media app, children can participate in various social activities like playing games, group chat, group reading, and much more. This social media app enables kids to showcase their creativity in different cultural fields like dance, drama, artwork, and so on.

Features

- Offer parental supervision to prevent misuse
- Web-based Admin portal to block harmful content
- Promote good habits and discipline among kids
- Compatible with Android and iOS
- Improve communication skills among kids

4. Above All

It is a music distribution app that allows singers and vocal artists across the world to upload their songs and music albums in different formats quite conveniently. Using this app, they can also assess the response of the audience through different metrics. Moreover, the application also allows them to view the sales and revenue figures of their songs and music videos throughout the year.

Features

- Publish songs and music on various streaming platforms
- Songs and album videos can be uploaded through Dropbox or iCloud
- Preserve royalties and rights of every artist quite transparently
- No lengthy contracts during profile creation
- Ensure faster withdrawal of earned money

5. Talant Hiring

It is a cloud-based HRMS application that allows an organization to smoothly track the attendance, leaves, assigned tasks, and other records of their employees. This app is also quite useful for accessing employee documents, assigned projects, performance feedback, and so on within a very short time. The app helps to maintain coordination among employees to boost productivity.

Features

- Support task allocation among employees quite easily
- Ensure faster leave application and approval
- Allow uninterrupted group conversation
- Track and record working hours on a real-time basis
- Offer training courses to upskill employees

6. Fast Rupee

It is a real money gaming platform that allows users to make surplus revenue from playing car racing games. The winning amount is fairly determined based on comparing the performance of gamers in the racing games with the completion duration. Users can also track their previous performances and earn amounts that enable them to deliver with the help of this application.

Features

- Offer practice game mode
- Entry fee customization
- Faster Withdrawal of earned amount
- Instant notifications on upcoming racing events

7. Fintech App

This app helps beginners and pros to achieve success in the stock market trading and investment industry. Using this app, investors can make money in real cash and cryptos as per their choice. This app allows newcomers to acquire first-hand experience in stock market trading before the actual investment. It also helps them to visualize new strategies to maintain success and growth.

Features

- Offer regular updates on the stock market trends
- Provide real-time analysis through charts and graphs
- Help to learn market trading tricks through virtual trials
- Guarantee surplus profits and ROIs with the right investment

8. Good Food

It is a food ordering application that lets you taste delicious homemade meals for lunch, breakfast, and dinner. Besides, this app also allows you to place orders to taste delicious native and continental food items of your choice. This application constantly updates you on the latest food dishes with good user ratings. At the same time, it also recommends ideal healthy food items for users based on their age, gender, body weight, etc.

Features

- Accept and confirm orders instantly
- Provide attractive cashback offers and discounts
- Smooth order placement and easy payment options
- Maintain food delivery deadlines quite consistently

9. Cricket Ground Organizing

Using this app enterprises can easily select the cricket match venue of their choice without spending much time and effort. This app provides full information on various corporate cricket match-hosting venues without missing any details. In this app, users can also obtain reviews on various cricket match-hosting venues. Using the app, enterprises can book a cricket ground either for specific hours or for an entire week or more. The app features a secured option to pay the rent fare after choosing the ideal cricket ground.

Features

- Regular updates on the latest rent discounts and offers
- Provide information on the ground condition of various venue
- Showcase match results of previous tournaments
- Provide information on venue availability

10. Quiz App Gamification

This quiz app works on the concept of gamification. It provides fair points and rewards to players based on their quiz performance. The app grants users the privilege to participate in various quiz events through their virtual avatars. Moreover, using this engaging application, users can share their achievements with their friends and can also invite them to take part in the challenge.

Features

- Availability of a wide range of quiz formats
- Serve detailed performance feedback to users
- Provide a sense of accomplishment with competitive levels
- Ideal for users of all ages

11.365 Learning Language App

Learning a different language using this app is always an immersive experience for users of all ages. Whether enhancing your native language skills or gaining proficiency in foreign languages, the app serves you with cutting-edge features and functionalities to obtain a satisfactory experience throughout the year. Based on the distinct learning requirements of users, the app suggests ideal learning courses that are segregated into Beginner, Intermediary, and Pro.

Features

- Offer language translation support to ensure better learning
- Gamified the overall learning experience to reward users
- Allow users to connect with the best language instructors

12. Coloring App

This app is devised for children and its purpose is to teach them the art of coloring with the right patterns and colors. The app helps to enhance the power of imagination and creativity among every child with the right color selection quite conveniently. Using this app, children can also showcase their artistic taste to a vast global audience.

Features

- Comprise coloring tools of various types
- Multiple colored theme selection options
- Allow sharing of colored works
- Easy-to-use interface to showcase skills and creativity

13. Automobile App

This app provides updates on various automobile expo events with 100% accuracy and perfection. Using this app, users will receive proper information on vehicles that were exhibited in the previous expo events. It also offers information on various expo venues that will allow users to participate in the automobile exhibition program quite conveniently.

Features

- Provide real-time information on upcoming automobile expo events
- Location tracking feature to reach the event venue on time
- Help to obtain full information about each expo event hosting venue

14.Night Events App

The app allows users to obtain information on various night party events at their fingertips. Based on the user's age and preference, it serves users with the ideal night events that can be attended with friends and families. Using this app, users can send invitations to their close ones to attend these exciting and rocking events very easily.

Features

- Smooth ticket purchasing options
- Provide details of every night event
- Allow users to post reviews on every night event
- Offer advance notifications on upcoming night events

15.Home Decor App

The app provides users with a variety of home decoration ideas to enable them to choose the ideal one. It also helps them to know about the latest home decoration trends and tools that will help elevate the look and feel of a home interior. This app also enables users to share their home decoration ideas with their friends and family.

Features

- Allow users to smoothly manage home decor projects
- Connect users with experienced home decor professionals
- Help in visualizing home decor ideas through simulation

16. Kandigram App

This social media app is mainly dedicated to women where they can connect with each other to share thoughts, exhibit stylish looks, and so on. It also provides updates on the upcoming events to be attended by women of different young ages. This social media completely filters out harmful content to prevent harassment of female users.

Features

- Help to measure content performance through various metrics
- Comprise unlimited community pages for female users
- Offer live streaming and live chat scopes to obtain surplus enjoyment