

Key Responsibility Areas of Tester

Principal KRA – Weight-age – 80% Effort

- Understanding the system and target audience along with specifications of the work assigned by project manager.
- Review the designs of systems and features to ensure testability.
- Writing test cases to ensure that you cover maximum requirements in minimum number of test cases.
- Performing manual tests, recording the results and raising defects.
- Identify, report and prioritise defects and working with the development team to locate and assist in resolving defects.
- Communicating security test results to technical and business stakeholders and working collaboratively to resolve security issues.
- Performing web app testing in different platforms (desktop browsers & mobile devices) with different versions.
- Performing mobile app/game testing in different devices with different resolutions.
- Performing test in production environment to ensure proper functioning of the system.
- Ensure the behaviour of the system in both offline and online mode.
- Writing release note while sharing build with client.
- Creating and executing test plans.

Secondary KRA – Weight-age – 20% Effort

- Estimating the time required for testing the whole system.
- Ability to provide training to fresher's / junior testers.
- Creativity: Finding a better ways to achieve the project goals.
- Learning: Ability to learn about and use of new testing tools, automation testing etc.